

Cambridge University Hellenic Society
11th November 2006
For Correspondence:

CUHS K. Gourgouliatos
Robinson College
CB3 9AN Cambridge
UK

Dear Mr Simonides,

Dr Aifantis, a member of our society, informed us about your Theatrical Performance of the Apology of Socrates. Our society aims to contribute to the social and intellectual life of Cambridge University by bringing together everyone who is interested in Greek culture and by organising cultural events.

We believe that Socrates is a key figure in the foundations of moral philosophy and this event will be very interesting not only for our members but for other members of the University of Cambridge. We are also very aware of the excellent quality of your performances; therefore we warmly invite you to Cambridge in order to present this play for us. Our society will make the arrangements concerning the venue; we can hire and cover the expenses for an auditorium with a capacity of two hundred people and advertise the event within Cambridge.

We hope you will accept our invitation and we are looking forward to seeing you in Cambridge for the Apology of Socrates.

Yours Sincerely,

On behalf of the Committee,
Konstantinos Gourgouliatos
Cambridge University Hellenic Society President